

Lowlands

An excellent starting place for any journey: lowland whiskies are delicate, light-bodied and dry. These whiskies are ideal as an aperitif.

Auchentoshan | 12 year old £5.30
Triple distilled and matured in Olorosso & American bourbon casks. The result: a Lowland Single Malt Whisky with the notes of mandarin, toffee & honeysuckle.

Glenkinchie | 12 Year Old £5.50
Our local distillery, just 20 miles from Edinburgh. Dry, floral notes on the nose develop into a refreshing citrus taste with a subtle creaminess.

Kingsbarns | Dream to dram £5.10
This young single malt is distilled, matured and bottled in Kingsbarns, Fife. Matured in ex fill bourbon casks creating a fruity, complex & light spirit

Highlands

Geographically the largest of the regions, Highland whiskies are diverse in their individual notes; however they share a depth of flavour profile, with most having an initial sweetness that gives way to a dry finish.

Aberfeldy | 12 Year Old £5.65
Our personal favourite, sweet and malty with a faint smokiness and crisp citrus finish.

AnCnoc | 12 Year Old £5.30
A nice robust whisky that wears its oak and barley on its sleeve with subtle coffee notes.

Clynelish | 14 Year Old £5.70
A Highland Malt on the coast where the maritime climate influences this delicious malt. Fruity with slight smokiness, rich and a drying finish. A great dram.

Dalmore | 12 Year Old £5.80
Aged for the first 9 years in American White Oak ex-Bourbon casks, before half is transferred to ex-oloroso sherry casks for the final 3 years. The result is a whisky with a combination of sweetness and rich, sherried flavours.

Dalwhinnie | 15 Year Old £6.10
A gorgeous whisky from a bleak landscape, full of nuts, honey and floral notes with a hint of vanilla and toffee.

Deanston, 2007 – 12 year old £7.40
Finished in a calvados cask sees a crisp & sweet whisky with hints of sharp green apple, candied fruit & citrus zest.

Glenmorangie | 10 Year Old £5.50
The scent of citrus and peaches is softened by notes of aroma in the whisky where those same vanilla notes can be tasted before finishing with a flowery fruitiness.

Oban | 14 Year Old £5.90
Distilled in the 'gateway to the isles', Oban wears its west coast provenance on its sleeve. Initial hints of peat smoke, combined with a salty maritime flavour are balanced with citrus orangey notes. The finish contains sweeter honeyed notes endowing this malt a smoother silky finish.

Tomatin | 12 Year Old £5.40
Smooth and silky, having been matured in traditional Scotch Whisky, ex-Bourbon and ex-Spanish sherry casks. The result is a sweet whisky with notes of apples, citrus and sweet spice.

Speyside

The most prolific of the malt regions, Speyside is renowned for the quality of its spring water which provides the perfect canvas for a wealth of distilleries to display their craft. The whiskies from Speyside tend towards sweet.

Aberlour | 12 Year Old £5.80
An easy going Speyside, the 12 Year Old has strong sherry notes with orchard fruits and gentle ginger spiciness. A deliciously complex whisky from an historic distillery.

The Balvenie | Doublewood 12 Year Old £5.60
A second maturation in Sherry Casks gives a rich, full flavour with notes of summer fruits and chocolate, overlaid with subtle cinnamon and black pepper spice.

The Glenlivet | 12 year old £5.40
Sweet orchard fruits on the palate, coupled with a grassy aroma make this the perfect dram for a summer's evening.

Glenallachie 12 year old £5.30
Bursts of Orange zest, heather honey & damsons, followed by lashings of mocha, dark chocolate, cinnamon, figs & dates.

Glenallachie 15 year old £6.90
Lashings of fig syrup, mocha & treacle lead to dark chocolate, sweet spice, heather honey & a hint of ginger.

Glenallachie 10 year old, cask strength- 57.2% £5.95
Heather honey, mocha & brittle toffee with grapefruit, cinnamon, earthy tannins & ginger to finish

Glenfarclas | 10 Year Old £5.30
Malty, with a touch of spice and full of the rich sweetness a high quality Speyside can deliver.

Glenfiddich | 12 Year Old £5.30
A consistent crowd pleaser with all the typical characteristics of a Speyside.

Glenfiddich | 15 Year Old £6.90
Bourbon, sherry and virgin oak casks all play a part in producing this rich Christmas pudding-like malt.

Glenfiddich | 18 Year Old £8.30
The extra time spent in the cask enhances the rich autumnal notes of this classic.

Linkwood, Carn Mor 2013 – 47.5% - 8 year old £5.50
Spiced current buns, biscuity malt & butterscotch followed by a gentle build up of peppery warmth

Longmorn, Carn Mor 2014 – 47.5% - 6 yr old £5.50
A rarely seen independent bottling from Carn Mor. This 6 year old was aged in Bourbon casks & features candy sweetness with fresh tropical fruit & vanilla pods

Longmorn, Sweetdram 2007 - 58.5% - 14 yr old £8.20
A creamy, rich, fruity single cask. Panna cotta, vanilla fudge & white tea on the palate leads to a rock candy & nettle finish.

Mortlach 12 year old 43.4% £6.30
Matured in both bourbon and sherry casks. This is a beautifully balanced, combining darker sherry notes with fresher Orchard-fruit flavours.

Tamnavulin Sherry Cask Edition 40% £5.10
Matured in American Oak Barrels and finished in three types of sherry cask for a beautifully balanced single malt.

Campbeltown

Distilled in the Burgh of Campbeltown on the Kintyre peninsula. Once a major producer with as many as 30 distilleries by 2010 there were only three left Springbank, Glengoyne & Glen Scotia. Campbeltown whiskies are well known for notes of dried fruit, vanilla, toffee and brine from the sea.

Springbank 10 year old – 46% £6.35
The perfect introduction to the Springbank range. Matured in a combination of bourbon and sherry casks, it is perfectly balanced with a full, rich finish

Springbank 15 year old – 46% £7.60
A 15 year old from the Springbank distillery with plenty of sherry notes and spice, dried fruits & nuts

Glen Scotia 8 year old – 56.2% £6.60
Exclusive Cask aged in Oloroso Hogshead. Opens with honeyed raisins. There is sweet clementine & candied ginger before ripe cherries & vanilla oak spice

Glen Scotia 15 year old 46% £6.90
Aged in American oak in Campbeltown creating a beautifully fruity, salty and slightly spicy single malt.

Glen Scotia 26 year old– 1992 – 47.3% 10.75
Stewed fruits, brambles & limes on the nose. Dark chocolate, pistachio, almond milk & pear skins on the palate with an earthy, aniseed & cinnamon finish

Hazleburn 21 year old – 46% £14.70
Triple distilled, non peated from the Springbank distillery. A rare chance to sample this highly collectible whisky. Vibrant & fruity.

Kilkerran Batch No.6 – 57.4% £5.30
Heavily Peated version of the usually lightly peated Kilkerran. Sweet peat smoke with notes of honeycomb lead to a peppery finish and a lot of peat smoke.

Kilkerran 12 year old – 46% £6.50
Lightly peated and matured in a combination of Bourbon & sherry casks. Fruity citrus notes lead to vanilla, honeycomb & digestive biscuits.

Kilkerran 16 year old – 46% £7.80
A gorgeous Bourbon matured Campbeltown from Kilkerran. A touch of dried Apricot leads into earthy peat, peppery spice, biscuits & a hint of brine. Stone mineral notes to finish

Islands

Island whiskies are as varied and unique as the Scottish Islands themselves and offer rich rewards for those who explore them. Most Island malts have rich smoky notes as a result of the underground peat that carries the water to the distilleries.

Highland Park | 12 Year Old £5.30
Distilled at the most northerly distillery in Scotland, on the island of Orkney. Highland Park has the distinction of being the last distillery that still cuts its own peat. The rewards of this labour are a whisky with an award-winning, subtle floral smoky sweetness that gives way to a rich malt delivery on the palate. The most approachable of the Island malts.

Talisker | 10 Year Old £5.60
Distilled on the beautiful Isle of Skye, there is no mistaking Talisker's maritime heritage; its powerful peat-smoke nose is cut through with sea-water saltiness. While the smoke carries though on the palate, it is complimented with warming barley-malt and dried-fruit flavours.

Isle of Islay

The boldest whiskies in Scotland, Islay whiskies are renowned for their strong smoky flavours, imbued by malting the barley using the island's native peat. Bold and smoky, they can be medicinal and seaweed; their bold flavours make them an exceptional digestif.

Ardberg | 10 Year Old £5.90

This highly acclaimed whisky softens its sharp citrus with hints of vanilla, with a lingering smoke finish.

Bowmore | 12 Year Old £5.60

Subtle lemon and honey and Bowmore's trademark peaty smokiness on the nose lead to a sweet heather-honey taste with a hit of peat smoke, giving it a long, mellow finish.

Bruichladdich-The Classic Laddie-50% £5.45

Sea salt & black pepper on the nose, Malty biscuit, apple & pear on the palate, although unpeated it has a distinctive impression of faint smoke.

Bunnahabhain | 12 Year Old £5.30

Offering a fresh and aromatic experience with hints of smoke. The taste starts with a light fruit and nut note that leads to a malty sweetness, finishing with a full-bodied lingering experience.

Coal Ila | 12 Year Old £5.60

An ideal introduction to the bold smoky Islay flavours. The peat is balanced with an oily body, and sweet peppery undertones.

Kilchoman - small batch no.4- 49.8% £6.25

Summer fruit & red grape sweetness, white chocolate, charred pineapple & toffee with light hints of smoke.

Laphroaig | 10 Year Old £5.60

The classic Islay malt; dry and full of peat smoke. A drop of water opens up more complex spicy notes. A taste difficult to forget once acquired.

Lagavulin | 16 Year Old £6.80

An intensely, rich dried-fruit sweetness, smokey and strong with barley-malt flavours whisky, but also offering a dryness that turns it into a truly interesting dram.

Isle of Jura

Jura | Origin £5.30

A sweet honey aroma and gentile oak flavours leading to caramel and liquorice notes, finished in ex-Bourbon casks give Origin its distinctive Jura style.

Cadenhead's Single Cask

Independently bottled by Cadenheads in Campbeltown for something a little bit special.
